Photography Workshops & Training

Number 1 for photography workshops & training since 2005

We've been passing on our photography knowledge and skills since 2005 and we've earned a reputation for enjoyable, high quality, competitively priced one-day workshops. You'll find us in 130 venues, so you won't have far to travel.

We want you to be able to capture the images that are important to you, from memories of your family and friends, holidays and events, or things that interest you. To help you to achieve this, we offer a high quality range of structured workshops that offer great value for money:

- a maximum 10 students per tutor so you get ample personal attention
- professional, approved and experienced tutors
- a mixture of a modest amount of theory and lots of hands-on photography for the best learning experience
- beautiful venues so you have great photographic opportunities
- detailed handouts and assignments to take home - practice makes perfect!

ONE-TO-ONE

What could be better than a bespoke day with one of our tutors! We'll tailor a day to your requirements and on most of our days a guest is welcome free of charge.

Grahame Armitage wanted to photograph his daughter riding her pony, so tutor Pandora Maund arranged a day at Chatsworth Horse Trials so that Grahame had lots of opportunities to learn and perfect new skills and techniques.
